SELECTION CRITERION

The EDNA Awards have one selection criterion: the nominee must be a woman who has made A FEMINIST DIFFERENCE. She has contributed to making a better world for women. To illustrate this, please provide details addressing the following THREE SECTIONS:

SECTION ONE. What has your nominee done that has improved the status of women? Please be specific and attach additional pages if necessary.

SECTION TWO. Why do you believe this has made a feminist difference? Attach additional pages if necessary.

SECTION THREE. Please enclose relevant information on the nominee's background and biographical details, examples of her community involvement, paid or unpaid work etc. (two pages maximum). This might include materials such as media articles and/or website information.

Without the information in these THREE SECTIONS, nominations cannot be considered, and the nominator may be asked to provide more detail.
