

FOR INCITING OTHERS
TO CHALLENGE THE STATUS QUO

THE GRAND STIRRER AWARD

Throughout her life as a writer, feminist, human rights activist, and former professional model, Tara Moss has spoken out for the rights of women and children. She is currently addressing cyber space and its potential to promote hatred of women.

She is known for her depth of research and her expert use of data and statistics to validate her feminist arguments about fashion, body image, women in leadership, the gender pay gap, violence against women, breastfeeding, motherhood, immigration detention, human rights, refugees and much more.

She has made a significant contribution to feminist debate in Australia and across the world. She regularly brings attention to the plight of women and children in difficult circumstances – in war zones and in poor and developing societies.

Tara Moss applies a feminist lens to contemporary Australian society and uses many forms of journalism to inspire all of us to challenge the status quo.
