Audrey Mims

For Making a Feminist Difference in Community Activism

Audrey is a student at the Australian National University, currently completing a Bachelor of Law, and a Bachelor of Politics, Philosophy and Economics.

She currently serves as the Chair of The STOP Campaign Board, and is a facilitator of The STOP Campaign's College. The STOP Campaign is a grassroots not-for-profit feminist organisation working to prevent sexual violence in Australian tertiary learning communities through activism, empowerment, education, and awareness.

Audrey exemplifies STOP's core values of intersectional feminism, integrity, respect, and passion. In driving activism projects, she empowers victim-survivors of violence (the vast majority of whom are women) and advocates for tertiary communities where young women are safe from sexual violence in all its forms.
